

I. W. W. IN INJUNCTION SUIT

Amended Complaint Extends Scope Of Court's Authority

JAPS JOIN WITH THE COSSACKS

(By Associated Press)
TOKYO, Oct. 10.—Denial that the Japanese threatened to back the Cossacks against Americans in the recent incident at Iman near Vladivostok in which an apology was demanded from the Japanese, is made in a statement issued by the Japanese general staff here.

COAST FLYERS CROSS ILLINOIS ON WAY EAST

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—An American soldier at Vladivostok was shot and killed recently by a Russian officer, it was learned here. This, with other incidents, led to a demand from the Russian commanders at Vladivostok for the removal of Russian troops from that city. A vigorous protest by the Omak government, however, led to a withdrawal of the demand.

CAPITAL SUBMITS ITS SIDE

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Opposition to collective bargaining and unionism to be among the twelve fundamental principles outlined by the group representing capital presented today to the national industrial conference. Sympathetic strikes, lockouts and boycotts were declared to be indefensible, anti-social and immoral. While denouncing strikes and lockouts, the principles set forth that the right to strike or lockout should not be denied as an ultimate resort after all possible methods of adjustment had been exhausted. These principles, however, should apply only to private industry.

ORE SHIPMENTS FROM THE DIVIDE

The first truckload of ore from the Tonopah Divide arrived at the MacNamara mill this morning and the big trucks which continued to appear downtown in regular succession demonstrated that the parent property of the district is back on a shipping basis. The Divide Extension will follow soon and the Hasbrouck, which has been trucking out the tunnel, will be added to the list in the course of a few days. The big ore bin is filled so there will be no trouble in getting out a good shipment. The Dividend's new shaft is now going down with a full force and the management reports a steady improvement. The Toggery expects to join the list of going companies, either tomorrow or next day, and others are gradually adding to their working forces.

PRINCIPLES OF ORDER DANGEROUS TO THE WELFARE OF NEVADA

Long before the district court convened this morning, standing room was at a premium inside the court house and the approaches to the upstairs were jammed with spectators eager to hear arguments in the case of the state of Nevada vs. the I. W. W. and its representatives in Tonopah. M. J. Scanlon, the Reno attorney, appeared for the defendant and entered a demurrer to the allegations of the original complaint. Then it was discovered that an amended complaint had been filed and counsel for defendants asked for time to acquaint himself with the contents of the new complaint. The court inquired if 2 o'clock would suit and Mr. Scanlon replied that he would be ready at that time. When court reconvened there was not room for another person to squeeze in. The audience embraced all classes, including the leading attorneys. The state was represented by William Forman and Homer Mooney, deputies of the attorney general's office. The amended complaint which was enlarged to include several women defendants, is as follows:

In the district court of the Fifth judicial district, in and for the county of Nye, state of Nevada. The state of Nevada, on behalf of the communities and people hereinafter described and of the state of Nevada, plaintiffs, vs. I. A. teach the doctrine that "To teach the doctrine that a strike is a lawful weapon for depriving employers or others of their property or of obtaining possession of works, mines and industries or of compelling men to surrender the right of property they have in their labor, contrary to or in exclusion of due process of law," and threaten to continue to do so in the county of Nye and that they are persuading and threatening to persuade innocent persons that this is true and lawful and that such persons to the number
